

Sailing with Dolphins

I have been boating, mainly sailing, for over 50 years and this year, on the way to Salcombe, for the first time I saw Dolphins and they played with my boat. I was too excited to get photos or a video, I encountered some another four times but only in the distance. A wonderful experience, I have seen and swum with them abroad, but never seen over here.