

Covid-19 causes Talisker Bay to stay in the SW

Talisker Bay is already hauled out at Mylor near Falmouth. This year was meant to be a trip to the Isles of Scilly; not so, launch was delayed until July, and heading back North to Scotland delayed until 2022. However, a 25 year old Moody needs a lot of TLC so the lack of trips and passage-making was swapped for ticking off a long and venerable list of maintenance jobs. Roll on 2021, fingers crossed.
